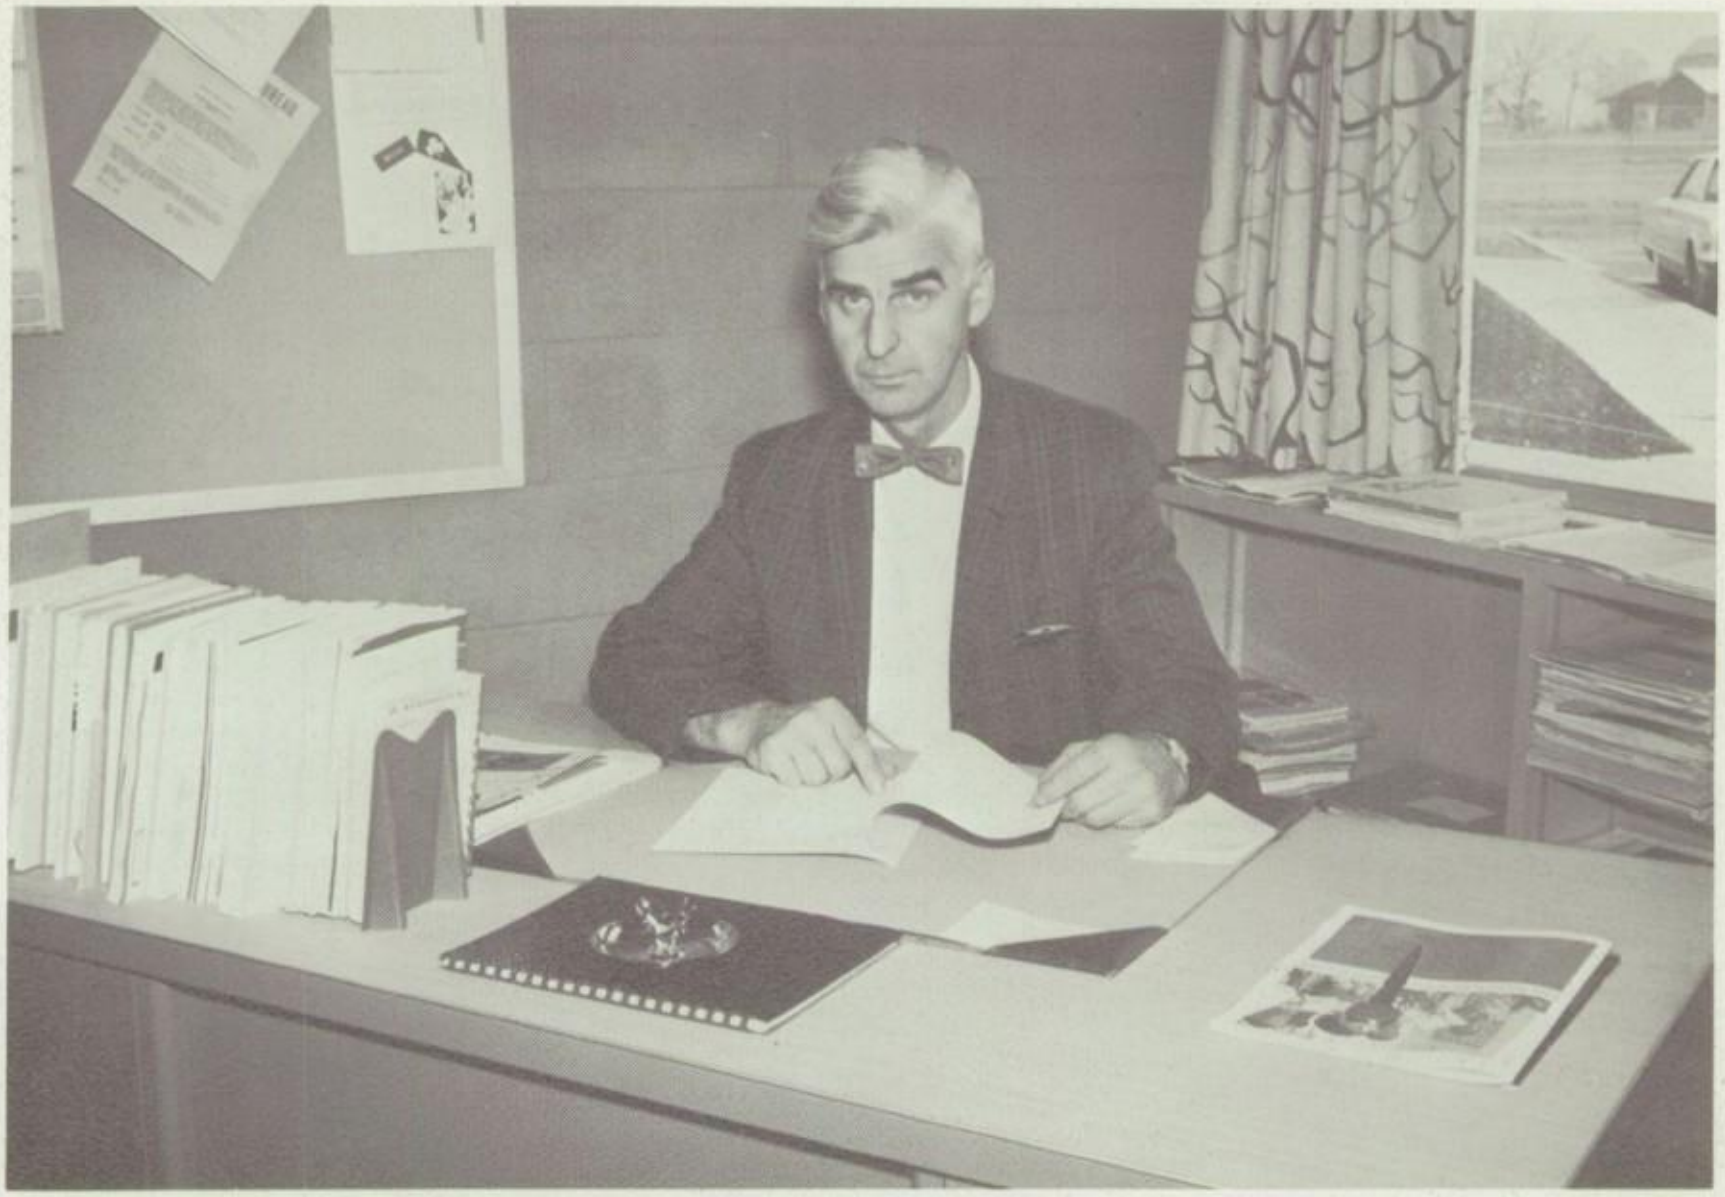
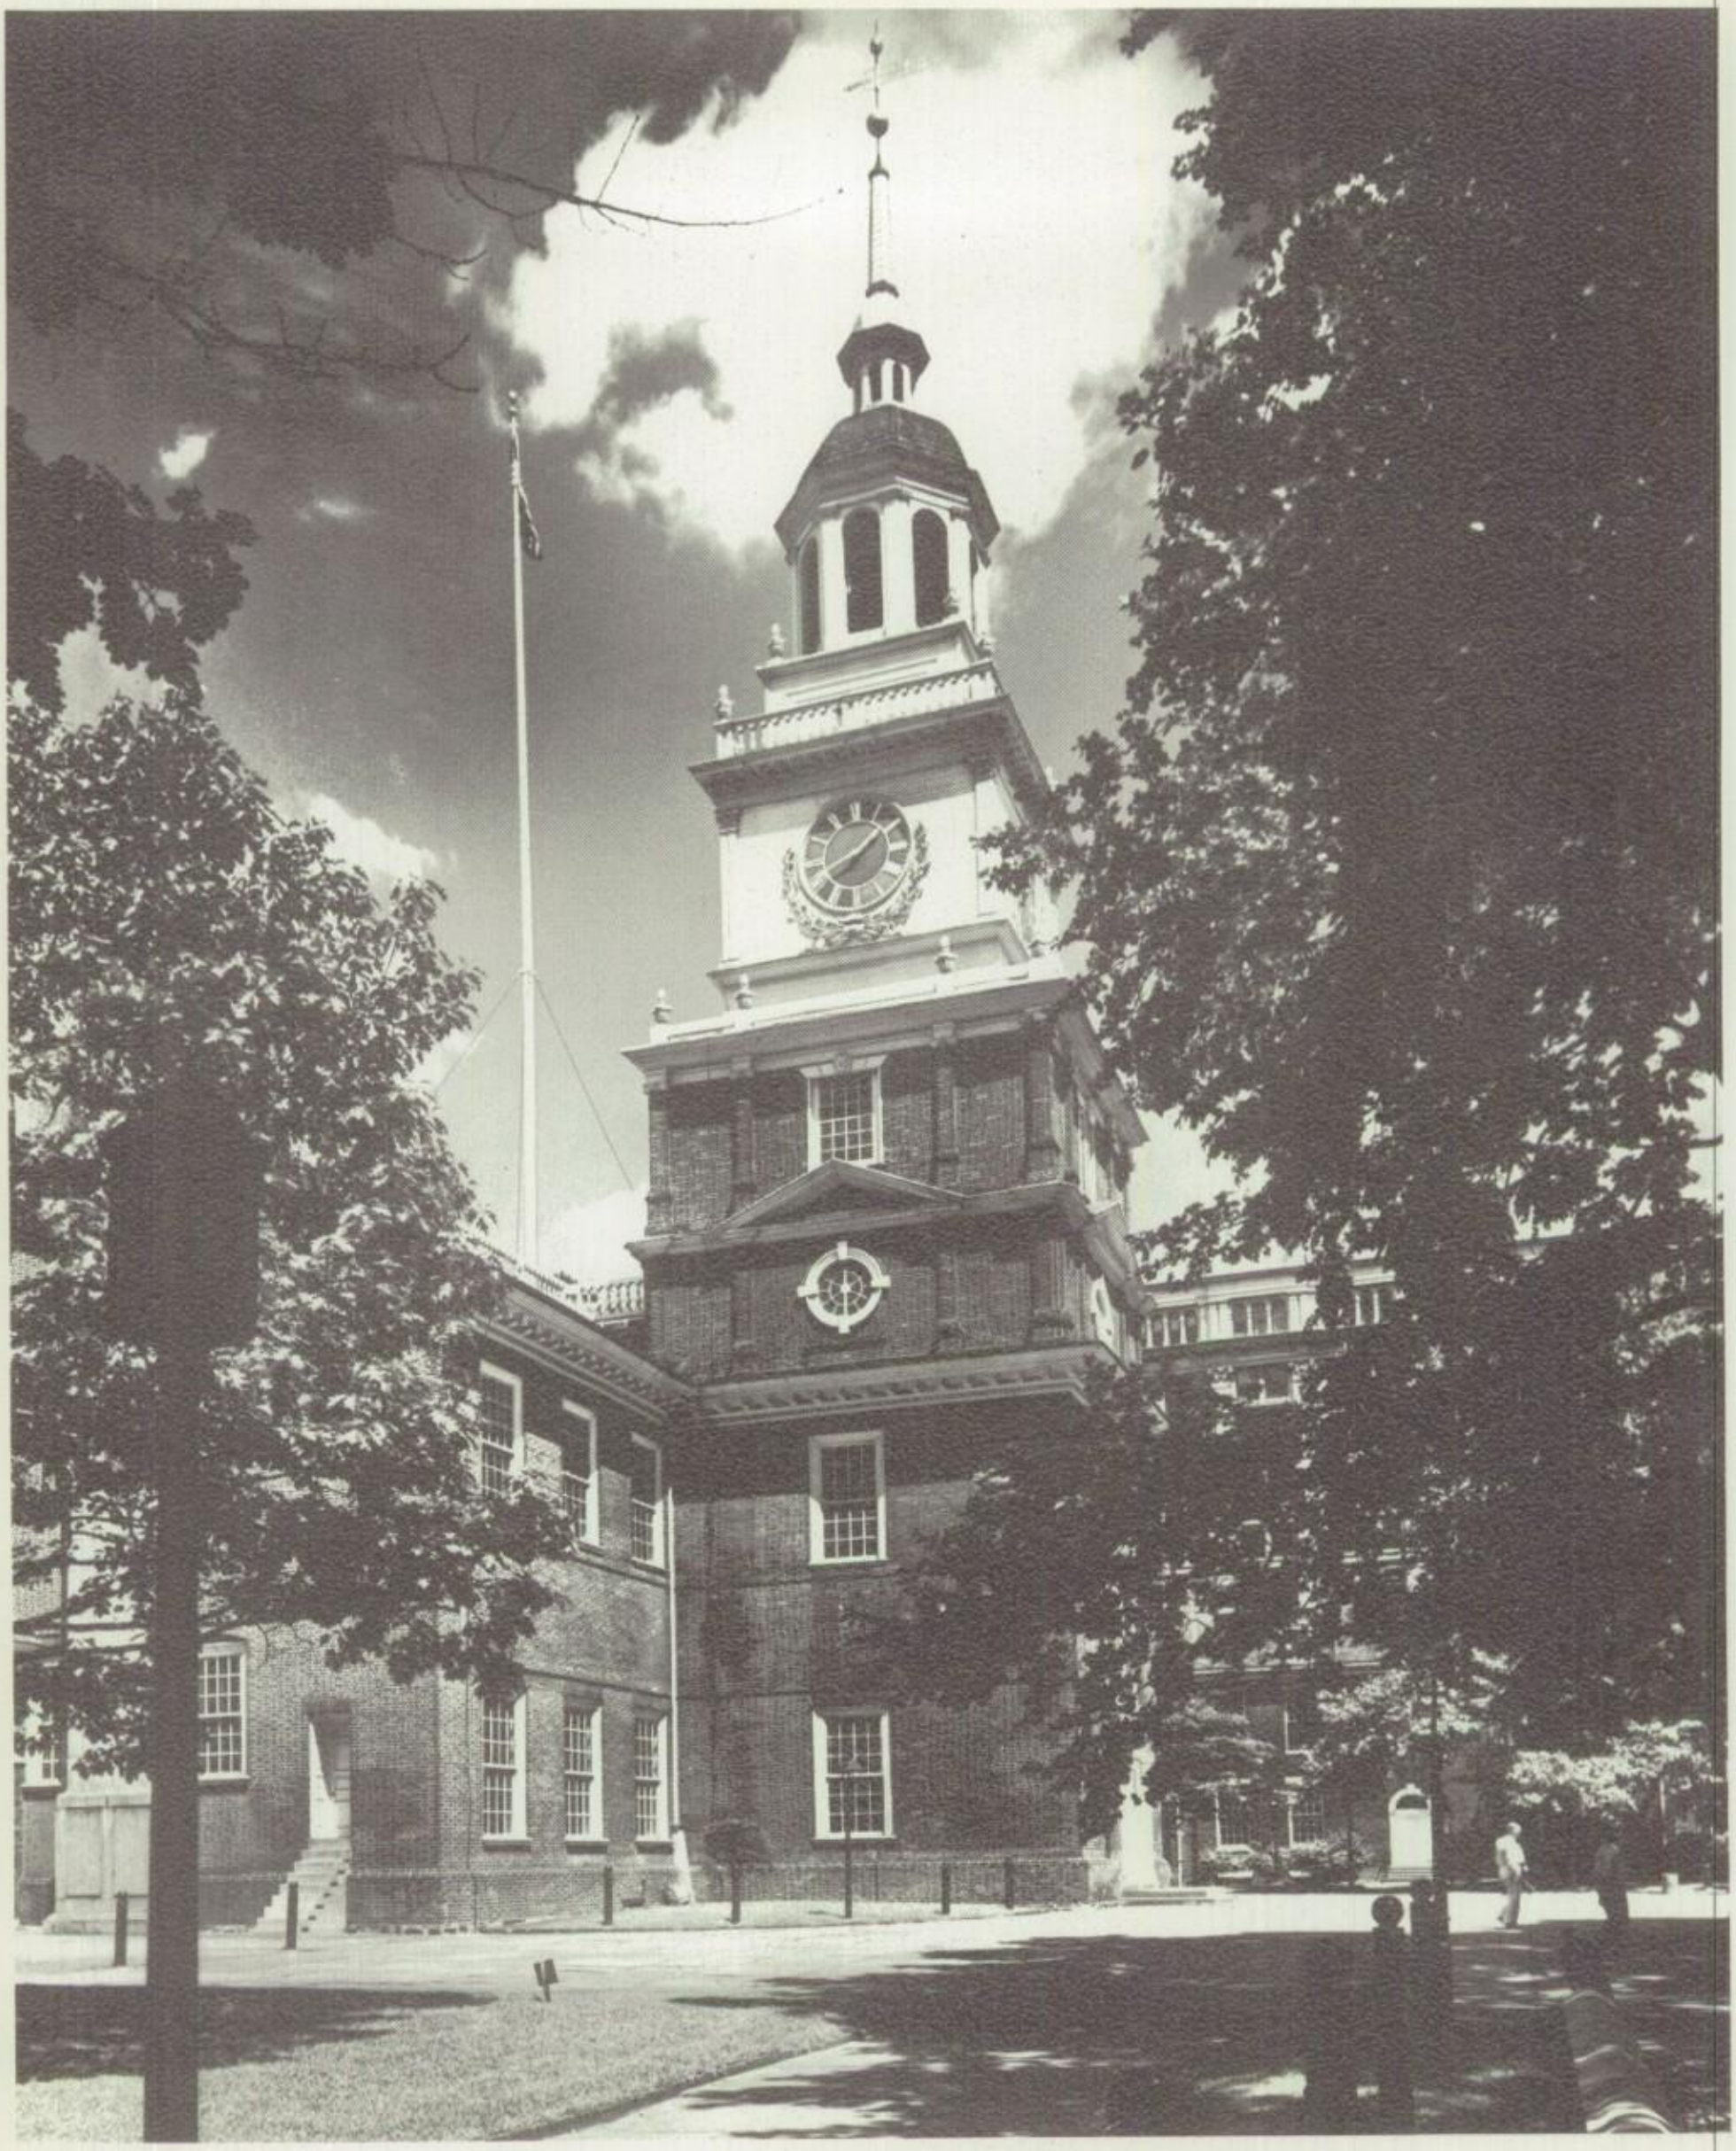
DEDICATION



To Mr. Smith, our superintendent, we dedicate this yearbook. The quality of administrative leadership he has provided through his knowledge, insight, ability, and skills; has made our educational system an outstanding one.

Each fall the doors swing open and we see a group of eager faces entering the portals of our school for the first time. Each spring the doors close on a group who have completed four years, and are starting out to seek a new way of life.

We welcome each incoming class. We sigh with regret as each class leaves. But this is progress, and progress is the basis of education.



ADMINISTRATION

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The educational background of our schools rests in the competent hands of the members of our Board of Education.

We are very sorry that Kenneth Thelen does not desire to continue as a member of the board. He has done outstanding work as president of the Board of Education.

Mr. Stork, our principal, who so ably assists with the many administrative problems of our school system.

THE SENIOR CLASS

As we gather here this evening
To honor the senior class,
I find it only fitting
To look into the past.
Let's turn back the clock and reminisce
About the past four years,
Remember moments we all have shared.
The laughs, the joys, the tears.

As freshmen we entered these hallowed halls
Of our beloved F.H.S.
We all were a bit timid, shy, and unsure,
But when we were put to the test,
We proved ourselves worthy to hold a place
As an integral part of our school.
We practiced good judgment, leadership and poise,
Honor and respect for the rules.

The following year we returned to these halls
As sophomores, all-knowing and wise.
We were a little too brave, and a little too bold.
And had to be cut down to size.
But it's a well-known fact that man only learns
From experience how to improve.
We grew up quite a bit in that one short year
And now we were on the move.

As juniors we really left our mark;
In both studies and sports we excelled.
We overcame obstacles to put on a prom,
And a first rate banquet as well.
In money-making projects we all did our share,
Each student who worked did his best.
We accepted responsibility and as a result
Our smorgasbord was a huge success.

As seniors we staged a brilliant campaign.
As a result a constitution was passed.
A project which started the previous year
Was a complete success at last.
Now graduation is nearly upon us,
And soon we'll be out on our own.
We'll miss all our friends and activities;
F.H.S. has become our second home.
We'll take warm thoughts and memories with us.
Our high school years have been great.
We are all very proud to be members
Of the SUPERSONIC class of "68.

LOOKING INTO THE FUTURE . . .

THE PROPHECY OF THE CLASS OF 1968

Fowler, 1998. The reunion of the Supersonic Class of 1968 has just gotten under way. With whole-hearted approval, the class decided to have it take place at the Fowler Playboy Club, owned and operated by GARY SCHUELLER, who seems pleased about the whole idea.

And who is this approaching me with a tray of goodies? Why it's KAY ANN FELDPAUSCH, looking as cute as ever in her furry white bunny suit.

And my, isn't the room decorated beautifully! Fresh flowers, shrubs--a regular garden. Why, there's even a tree! Oh, I beg your pardon! Closer inspection reveals it's none other than BUD CONLEY, who has his branch - or, arm - around his smiling wife SHARON FRECHEN Conley, who's grocery store has provided all of tonight's eats.

Ah, more guests are arriving. Here comes millionaire KEN BERTRAM, founder and president of America's foremost horse training center, "Blondie's Bridle School." He had once taken a job at a glue factory. But finding it too depressing, he quit, for he had seen TOO many of his old friends going in as nags and coming out as mucilege.

Standing next to Ken is ROSE WEBER, perhaps best known as "Ma." And isn't she lovely tonight! Her corsage of lillies is simply gorgeous.

A glance out the window reveals JOE KOENIGSKNECHT, the class playboy, pulling up with a carload of girls he "just happened to pick up on the way." Roaring up close behind is "Daredevil" DAVE SILLMAN in a souped up GTO leaving a path of bodies strewn here and there behind him.

Coming up the walk are MARCIA FELDPAUSCH and BRENDA FOX, who have just returned from another escapade at Westphalia, where they have been racing up and down mainstreet smiling, hoping some good looking boys will come out and join them.

Entering through the doorway is KAREN SIMON Thelen with her husband Ron. Both are well known scientists, particularly famous for their unusual idea of working experiments. Some of them are very weird and they have been published for the sake of posterity.

Standing near the doorway next to Playboy Bunny KATHY SCHAFER is JOE MACHADO, who has achieved his lifelong dream of being a diplomat. Strangely enough, shortly after he took on his first assignment World War III broke out.

Luckily, DARLENE BYRD, America's first woman president, untangled the mess.

Standing by the punch bowl are GEORGE GOERGE, the infamous coach at Fowler High School, and his wife, the former JOYCE HARR, who models for a leading airline. For some reason male travelers have taken a greater liking to fashion shows than to movies these days.

Ah, we have an orchestra! In it we see VONNIE BECKER, who seems to be having a bit of trouble. It looks as though she placed her hand too far in the bell of her horn and is having quite a time removing it. Tugging at her arm is that celebrated jazz musician JUDY BENJAMIN and her "swinging sax." And to top it off is RICHARD GEORGE, the fabulous drummer, who appears to be sleeping at the moment. But not for long, for up sneaks ROGER HALL, cymbals in hand, smile on face. Wham!! Excedrin Headache No. 32 huh, Rich? ?

Suddenly a great gust of wind blasts open the door, and amid lightning flashes and booming thunder appears "Geezer, Witch of the West," known to some as MARILYN WEBER. As the fury dies down she explains that she can't stay too long, for she has another appointment at St. Johns and then it's back to the Land of Oz.

But there is even more confusion on the other side of the room. It seems that GENE SIMON, in the dark corner, mistook BONNIE SCHMITT for her sister ANITA, giving her a little smack on the cheek. BILL WEBER, returning with two glasses of punch, saw this and promptly started throwing fists, while the twins were on the sidelines rooting for their respective hubbies.

Soon a police siren sounds and chopping his way through the open door is Sheriff ALLAN LUTTIG, the Barney Fife of Fowler. Allan begins by executing a few karate chops.

Following close behind is JIM MILLER, raving and ranting over some uncomplimentary remarks addressed to him. Nurse MARY JO HALFMANN arrives on the scene and applies a bandaid to Gene's severed artery.

LINDA THELEN, meanwhile, hasn't even noticed the disturbance. She's been relating to an attentive MARTIN MILLER and ELAINE RUHL her latest hot jokes, though the amused couple can't understand a word she's saying.

Next to them are STANLEY POHL and JOHANNA SMITH discussing books. Stanley is a fast-rising writer. Though his first 17 books were failures, he went on to write "Lord of the Fireflies" and "Canary Row," which were both best-sellers. Johanna has gained quite a reputation too, for she is the distinguished head librarian at the World Library situated in Fowler.

Is this Spanish I hear behind me? Turning around I find BOB FOX and EDGARDO LABORDE VIERA in a heated discussion. Bob is the president of "Bobby's Baby Buggy Bumpers, Inc.," which oddly enough manufactures whistles. He just thought the name sounded kind of catchy. Ed, you remember, is the noted chemist who a short time ago caused such a sensation by accidently blowing his country off the map. How HE escaped, no one knows.

Moving over to the stage we see the "Famous Foursome," HELEN FELDPAUSCH, SUSIE SIMON, JEAN THELEN, and CAROL WEBER, with their marvelous beauty shop quartet style of singing.

Speaking of beauty shops, is that VIRGINIA BERTRAM over there, Madagascar's foremost hairdresser? Yes, standing next to KAREN BIERGANS with that wierd hairdo. On questioning Ginny, I discover that Karen went in for her monthly shampoo and Ginny poured on the wrong solution, turning her hair frizzy and a toad colored green. Ginny said not to worry, though, for it should all fall out in a few days anyway.

To my left I see a crowd assembled around PAUL WIEBER, the world-renowned ornithologist, entertaining the group by emitting a few bird calls. Gathered around him are LANA UPTON, founder of "Aunt Lana's Pickle Company;" ROGER and DANNY FELDPAUSCH, African big game hunters; SARAH EDINGER, the Number 1 meat inspector and sausage-stuffer in Clinton County; and JANE "Crazyfoot" FOX, wearing some elegant brand new, square-toed, buckle-down high heels.

Glancing over the room I catch sight of the person who has changed most drastically--RITA KOENIGSKNECHT. The shy but friendly girl, we knew in high school has taken on the job of a dancing girl along with--yes--ROSA KLEIN!! Their manager, of course, is that great dancer, light-footed NEIL HAFNER.

While we're on the subject of dancing, I may as well point out that we have with us that illustrious ballet artist STEVE NOBIS, who is dressed in his familiar red tights. Conversing with him is SUSIE FOX, who, because of a passion for food, is chief connoisseur at PRISCILLA FOX's company "Prissy's Perfect Pastries," which is situated in St. Johns with a branch office in Pewamo, managed by ELLEN JEAN MILLER, who always did have a love for that town.

On the wall behind Susie is a painting done by RUTH ANNE GOERGE, the well known American artist. She calls it "I Bet You Can't Guess What This Is," and how right she is.

What's this confusion I hear outside? Stepping out I see MARK FELDPAUSCH's car tumbled into the ditch across the street. It looks like a cousin of his climbing out of the driver's seat. Also stumbling out are Mark and another friend a bit flustered and bewildered.

Sheriff Luttig seems to be busy at the moment, though, writing out a ticket for PAULINE THELEN who has double-parked again. Meanwhile, ELLEN EDINGER has fallen into a hole filled with icy water and is splashing and gasping for help. She's a little perturbed because she left her beach ball at home.

At last peace is restored, but not for long. Approaching are DIANE BOAK and a Feldpausch friend, walking hand-in-hand past SUSAN HALL's Bowling Alley. Suddenly a bowling ball whizzes past their heads. It seems that Susan was having a game inside, but found the backswing of her delivery too overpowering and the ball flew from her hand and out the window. But the love-struck couple passing by hasn't even noticed it.

As I stroll back into the Playboy Club, I fondly think of this as being only a fraction of the excitement we enjoyed in our high school days.

To round off the day we all decide to tour the familiar places we knew as students: the high school, the town itself, the old theatre of our Prom, the Pines, and all the other spots held so dear to our hearts.

On returning to the club, we find the bunnies have closed up for the night, so we climb into our cars and go off on our separate ways. But the smiles on everyone's faces portrayed that a "good time was had by all."

TO YOU WE WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1968, do bequeath the following tokens to the members of the Junior Class.
PAUL WIEBER wills to Chuch Miller his dead Mellipus Umbellus Umbellus. "It's probably pretty smelly by this time, Chuck!"
LANA UPTON wills her black bomb to Virginia Martin with the saying, "Turn the corner on Walker Road with care."
DIANE BOAK wills her long hours in shorthand class to Sandra Martin with the wish for her to keep Mrs. Turcott busy next year.
To Diane Koenigsknecht, SARAH EDINGER wills her locker full of shorthand books, notebooks, and her 100 words a minute.
ROSE KLEIN wills to Karen Koenigsknecht her position as editor of the school paper. "Lots of luck, Karen."
ALLAN LUTTIG wills to Max Witgen the scar above Max's eye he gave him. "It's better to give then to receive, Max."
To Bill Halfmann, JIM MILLER wills his cement jobs and yellow cement truck. "Keep up my good reputation, Bill."
ROGER FELDPAUSCH wills to Jerry Klein his rebuilt car with the advice, "Don't attempt to drive farther than the city limits."
KAREN BIERGANS wills to Diane Topper her messy locker filled with business English papers. "I hope you have to do as much work in there as I did."
GENE SIMON wills to Kenneth Koenigsknecht his many hours of sleeping in class. "Don't get caught as much as I did, Kenny."
To Doug Messer, KENNY BERTRAM wills his brown-nosing ability with the saying, "If your grades aren't high enough to allow you to pass, my brown-nosing advice will pull you through."
BILL WEBER wills his cute little dimples to Mike McKean. "I hope the girls don't chase you like they did me!"
BONNIE and ANITA SCHMITT will their cheerleading ability to Karen and Kathy Schomisch. "We hope you enjoy it as much as we did."
STEVE NOBIS wills his red pajamas to Bruce Simon. "If you're ever in a class play you may need them."
BOB FOX wills his smart remarks and his happy little whistle to Donald U. Thelen.
NEIL HAFNER wills to Larry Thelen his nickname "Ott" with the saying, "It's not so bad once you get use to it."
CAROL WEBER wills her brother "Dog" to Grace Myers. "Good luck with him, Grace."
To Bette Schomisch, SHARON FRECHEN wills her hearty laugh. "They'll always know when you are around, Bette!"
MARTIN MILLER wills his great acting ability to Don Kramer with the saying, "I hope you get as much applause as I did."
SUSAN FOX wills her family of kittens to Becky Graff. "Keep the dogs away, Becky!"
DANNY FELDPAUSCH wills to Jerry Thelen all his fun on skip day with the advice "Don't drink too much pop, Jerry."
DAVE SILLMAN wills to Pat Thelen his black and brown saddle shoes. "You'll be the only tough guy in school with those shoes on."
ROGER HALL wills his work in the bowling alley to Mike Wieber with the advice, "Watch out for those women bowlers."
GEORGE GOERGE wills his bubble gum injuries to Gary Feldpausch.
HELEN FELDPAUSCH wills to Irene Feldpausch the keys to the '52 Chevy on skip day.
To Fred Epkey, RICHARD GOERGE wills all of his pictures taped in his locker.
GARY SCHUELLER wills his corner by the band room to Leon Harr. "Don't use it as much as I did, Leon."
JEAN THELEN wills her week in the hospital to Diane Kramer. "Sorry Diane, most of the doctors were already married."
ELLEN EDINGER wills her reckless driving to Linda Thelen. "Watch when backing out of car-ports."
KATHY SCHAFER wills her many speeches in speech class to Leone Koenigsknecht.
SUSIE SIMON wills to Louise Thelen her 180 days riding to school on Mr. Douglas's bus.
JOANNA SMITH and RITA KOENIGSKNECHT will their typewriters to Wilma Pausch with the saying, "You'll get twice the amount of work finished this way."
To George Thelen, MARILYN WEBER wills her black magic and old brooms with the saying, "Be careful flying over tall trees, George."
JUDY BENJAMIN wills her long red hair to Bob Wesner. "Now you can be a "hippy", Bob."
MARY JO HALFMANN wills her candy striper uniform to Mary Lou Mueller.
JOE KOENIGSKNECHT wills to David Mortiz his athletic ability.
STAN POHL wills to Sam Simmon his great scientific mind with the saying, "Take physics Sam, it's a breeze."
PAULINE THELEN wills her shorthand speed to Linda Schafer.
MARK FELDPAUSCH wills to Diane Goodknecht all his business classes with the members of the opposite sex.
JANE FOX wills her "Dominic the Donkey" record to Allen Pohl. "You'll learn to like it, Al!"
To Rosanne Smith, MARCIA FELDPAUSCH wills her position as candy striper.
LINDA THELEN wills her talking ability to her brother, Dale Leonard Thelen. "Keep the classes going, Dale!"
ROSE MARY WEBER wills her untameable character to her brother, Jerome Weber.
ELLEN JEAN MILLER wills her typing ability to Joanne Schneider.
KAY ANN FELDPAUSCH wills her many trips to St. Johns to Marlene Theis.
RUTH GOERGE wills her talent in art class to Mary Ann Schrauben.
BUD CONLEY wills to Dale Louis Thelen all his sunny afternoons working in the gas station.
KAREN SIMON wills all her fun and misery on skip day to Marie Goerge.
To Judy Bird, ELAINE RUHL wills her loud voice. "They'll always be able to hear, Judy."
JOYCE HARR wills to Diane Fox her big appetite. "Candy tastes the best, Diane."
VONNIE BECKER wills to Janet Fox her sore lip from practicing on her horn so long.
DARLENE BIRD wills her job as library assistant to Linda Simon. "Make sure all the overdue books are returned and the fines paid."
PRISCILLA FOX wills her ability to drive through garage doors to Jane Thelen. "Remember to open the door before backing out of the garage, Jane."
VIRGINIA BERTRAM wills to Tom Nobach her locker. "Keep it in the family, Tom."
BRENDA FOX wills all the defense mechanisms available to Kenny Rademacher. "T-r-y to keep the girls away, Ken."
JOE MACHADO and ED LABORDE leave their thanks to the F.H.S. student body, faculty, and administration for making their stay in Fowler such a memorable one.
To Helen, Viola, and Mary, our loyal cooks, we do this day leave our hearty appetites along with our hearty thanks for the many excellent meals we were served throughout our four years of high school.
To our custodian, Joe Koenigsknecht, we express our gratitude for keeping our school in such excellent order. It was a pleasure walking through his clean-swept halls.
To our coaches, Mr. Trierweiller, Mr. Schray, and Mr. Douglas, we leave our deep thanks for the many hours spent in making our athletic department the great one it was.
To the bus drivers, we leave our piles of papers and tracks of mud with the saying, "It could have been worse."
To Mr. Daley, our faithful counselor, we leave our many unsolved problems.
To the administration and faculty we leave our thanks for their patience, endurance, and guiding advice.
To the Class of '69, we the Senior Class of 1968, leave our many happy memories with the hope that they too will enjoy their Senior Year as much as we did.

Signed, sealed, and delivered this fourth day of May, nineteen hundred and sixty-eight.

The Senior Class

THROUGH FOUR YEARS

In the fall of 1964 fifty-nine freshmen entered Fowler High School. They were: Vonnie Becker, Judy Benjamin, Kenneth Bertram, Virginia Bertram, Karen Biergans, Diane Boak, Forest Conley, Ellen Edinger, Sarah Edinger, Daniel Feldpausch, Helen Feldpausch, Kay Ann Feldpausch, Marcia Feldpausch, Mark Feldpausch, Roger Feldpausch, Brenda Fox, Jane Fox, Robert Fox, Susan Fox, Sharon Frechen, Diane Geller, George Goerge, Richard Goerge, Ruth Anne Goerge, Neil Hafner, Mary Jo Halfmann, Joyce Harr, Connie Hendershot, Joe Koenigsknecht, Larry Koenigsknecht, Rita Koenigsknecht, Clare Kramer, Allan Luttig, Ellen Jean Miller, James Miller, Martin Miller, Steven Nobis, Stanley Pohl, Elaine Ruhl, Kathy Schafer, Thomas Schafer, Anita Schmitt, Bonita Schmitt, Gary Schueller, David Sillman, Gene Simon, Karen Simon, Susan Simon, Joanna Smith, Marcia Tate, Jean Thelen, Linda Thelen, Pauline Thelen, Lana Upton, Carol Weber, Marilyn Weber, Rosemary Weber, William Weber, Paul Wieber. The class officers were: President, Paul Wieber; Vice President, Ruth Anne Goerge; Secretary, Sarah Edinger; Treasurer, Joanna Smith: Student Council Representatives, Joe Koenigsknecht and Karen Simon.

In the fall of 1965, all students returned except Connie Hendershot. Mary Beth Geyer joined the class in the fall but left after the second semester. Three others joined the class: Priscilla Fox, Roger Hall, and Darlene Bird. The class officers were: President, Sharon Frechen; Vice President, Bob Fox; Secretary, Diane Boak; Treasurer, Stanley Pohl; Student Council Representatives, Karen Simon and Joe Koenigsknecht.

In the fall of 1966, all students returned except Marcia Tate. The class officers were: President, Sharon Frechen; Vice President, George Goerge; Secretary, Vonnie Becker; Treasurer, Danny Feldpausch, Student Council Representatives, Linda Thelen and Stan Pohl.

In the fall of 1967, all students returned except Larry Koenigsknecht. During the second semester two exchange students, Joe Machado and Ed Laborde, joined the class. The class officers were: President, Bud Conley; Vice-President, Bob Fox; Secretary, Paul Wieber; Treasurer, Jim Miller; Student Council Representatives, Marilyn Weber and Steve Nobis.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The Junior-Senior Banquet was held on May 4. A delicious dinner was served by the mothers of the juniors and sophomore girls were the table waiters.

Allen Pohl, the junior class president, gave the welcoming speech and Bud Conley, the senior class president, gave the response. Karen Simon read the class prophesy, Sharon Frechen the class will, Judy Benjamin the class history, and Susie Simon the class poem.

SENIOR CLASS TRIP

The senior class went to the Jack & Jill Ranch on their annual class trip. The ranch is located north of Muskegon and is exclusively for young adults 19 to 35 years of age. The students left early in the morning on May 10, and returned home very late the same evening. While at the ranch they enjoyed dancing, canoeing fishing schuffleboard, tennis, archery, boating volleyball, and horseback riding. They also enjoyed swimming in the private lake and heated swimming pool. They ate lunch and dinner at the ranch and returned home tired and happy. The class sponsors, Mr. Schray and Mrs. Covert, accompanied them on their trip.

SENIOR SMORGASBORD

Instead of the annual fish fry, the senior class sponsored a smorgasbord which was held on April 6. The menu included ham, chicken, meat loaf, and a variety of potatoes, vegetables, pie and salads. The students worked hard and the meal was a huge success.
